

Training exchange between RDTC (Tanzania) and AEDV (Spain)

We are offering a training exchange between Spanish and Tanzanian dermatologists aimed at improving the collaboration between both groups, reaching specific learning objectives and promoting long-term collaborations.

Participants selection:

Participation will be offered in each country to select 2 participants (dermatologist or dermatologists in training) in Tanzania and 2 in Spain. These would be later paired by the organization considering their mutual interests.

They will be chosen by the organizing groups in each country.

Based on:

*Ability to communicate in English, Spanish or Swahili, plus

For Spanish participants: interest in a career in tropical dermatology. Previous experience on this field and/or training will be considered positive.

For Tanzanian participants: based on their training plan, that should be specific and feasible within one month.

The potential for further spreading what they learn during this project will also be taken into account.

How to participate?

Send your CV, and a one page letter describing your current job, your interest in participating, your specific aims and the possible timing of your visit to the other country to investigacion@aedv.es (for Spain). African counterparts should send their documents to admin@rdtc.or.tz AND rdtc.secretariat@gmail.com.

Deadline 1st September 2019.

What we expect from participants?

Each pair should produce a joint paper for publication, with the help of the Research Unit of the Spanish Academy of Dermatology. The aim of this collaboration is to establish the basis for further partnerships. It should be ongoing before starting the period of visit exchange.

Participants will make a stay in the other country with a specific and measurable aim. It should be between 14 and 31 days, between August 2019 and August 2020.

A final memory of the activities should be sent to the organizers within two months after the end of the last stay.

What will we offer?

For Tanzanian participants: travel, meals and accommodation, with a maximum of 2000€.

For Spanish participants: Accommodation will be provided by RDTC. Support for meals and travel will be 1000€.

Expenses should be justified at the requirement of the organizers.
